FOREWORD

We proudly present the second volume of the SESPRISCHOAN, our school annual. We Seniors of nineteen forty-nine have worked long and hard to prepare this yearbook for you. Last year's Seniors set high standards of publication for us, but we have endeavored to come up to them.

We extend our thanks to you, for buying this book; and we hope and believe that you will thank us when you read it. We sincerely hope that something of interest to everyone is contained herein. We have attempted to give as much information as possible in the limited space, so that in future moments of recollection, you and we, may fondly read again of some of the happiest days of our lives.

During the toils of publication, we have sought and received much help and co-operation from many people. Our advertisers were generous, the school officials were just wonderful, and many others were very helpful. We are extremely grateful to everyone.

By publishing this volume of the SESPRISCHOAN we are attempting to carry on the fine practice begun by our immediate predecessors. We earnestly hope that future classes will do the same.

TO OUR PARENTS

WE DEDICATE
THIS BOOK

- * -

To our parents we dedicate this book with sincere appreciation for the encouragement, love, and understanding that you have given us.

To us you are, and always will be, the swellest folks in the world. Without your years of struggle and sacrifice for our sake it would have been impossible for us to have climbed this far up the ladder of life.

Throughout our life may we never disappoint you in anything that we do; may we fulfill your fondest hopes and expectations, and always live in a manner pleasing to you.

MR. JAMES O. WATERS

During the several years that he has been at Seven Springs, Mr. Waters has worked hard to improve and develop the school. In particular appreciation for the great patience and many kindnesses that he has shown the Seniors of 1948-49, we wish to pay tribute to Mr. Waters by including this special honorary page in our annual. During our Senior year, he arranged a very interesting and exciting trip to Raleigh for us, he showed a remarkable amount of patience with us during our advertising campaign, he relieved us of our classroom duties for quite a few days in order that we might work on the SESPRICHOAN, he aided us with many other projects and activities, he was always kind and helpful. For all these things we are sincerely grateful.

---THE SENIORS ---

MRS. GERTRUDE G. SCOTT

No one in the Senior class once thought about publishing this annual without including a tribute of some kind for our beloved teacher advisor, and sponsor, Mrs. Scott. Despite the vigorous protests of this truly modest person, we have succeeded in including this page in honor of her.

Words cannot express the depth of our affection for her. Not only has she been wonderfully sweet and loyal to us, her home room class, but to have the pleasure of associating with a person who is so nice to everyone, is truly a privilege. People dream about personalities like Mrs. Scott's, and say to themselves that there is no such thing, but they just haven't met Mrs. Scott. The memory of her, and the lessons she has taught us, not just from books, but lessons of kindness and character, will remain with us through our lives.

From the hearts of each and everyone of the Seniors comes a wish that Mrs. Scott may have a long and prosperous life, and all the good luck in the world.

It is a great pleasure for the SURPRISEMAN to print the above photograph. By doing so, we are attempting to honor a truly wonderful person, Miss Ella Gillerlain, for many years a teacher in our school. Miss Gillerlain, the first grade, and Seven Springs School, go together just like ham, eggs, and hot coffee.

The above picture is an actual photograph of the occasion of the crowning of Miss Gillerlain as "Queen for a Day", on the famous radio show of the same name. Miss Gillerlain was "Queen" on May 8, 1946. The jovial gentleman on the left is Jack Bailey, Master of ceremonies on the program, which originates in Hollywood, California.

This year Miss Gillerlain has been chosen as Wayne county "Teacher of the year." Her many friends at Seven Springs know that this honor is richly deserved. Last year, this year, and for many years to come, the graduating classes at Seven Springs School will have been taught the first grade by Miss Gillerlain; she is loved, honored and respected by everyone of them.

ALMA MATER

Your praises high we love to sing,
    Oh Seven Springs
The thought of you to our warm hearts
    What fondness brings!
Tho far we wander, tho many lands
    We roam
We'll turn to you as loving children
    Turn toward home.

We love to honor your dear name,
    Oh Seven Springs Hi,
We'll e'er delight to spread your
    Fame to sea and sky.
We love your old walls the hills
    They crown, we love,
We love your dark majestic pines,
    The waving grove.

O Alma Mater, may your life,
    Through all the years,
Be radiant from your torch of truth
    And free from cares.
May God protect you and all your
    Labors bless
And spare you long for noble works
    Of usefulness.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 9, 1937, a group of ambitious youngsters entered various schools for the first time. Only 4-Edward Bizzell, Gordon Price, Jr., Donald Price, and Atlas Price, Jr, of the 38 beginners here have completed their school careers in the Seven Springs School. Miss Ella Gillerlain, our first grade teacher, helped us off to a good start.

Roger Price, McKinley Griffin, Linwood Hill, and Norwood Hinson joined the class in the fifth grade. Norwood Mazingo entered the class in the seventh. Annie Doris Mazingo, Vara Hines, Lucille Grant, Patty Gray Creech, and Frank Kilpatrick transferred to our class in the seventh grade from the Indian Springs School.

Some of our classmates moved away to other schools during our first few years in school.

In the fall of 1946, we entered High School as Freshmen. Our class was smaller that year than in the lower grades, but we spent an enjoyable and successful year under the guidance of Mrs. John Shine, our home room teacher.

Soon examinations were over and we were promoted to the tenth grade.

Mr. J. O. Waters, our new principal, gave us Miss Vertie Noble for our home room teacher. She was unable to teach the entire year. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Maxwell taught us the remainder of the year. There were only eighteen members in the class. We overcame the difficulties and made a lot of progress.

In September 1947, we entered the Junior class. Miss Ellen Williams, our new teacher, was very nice to us and we made a lot of progress. Our new officers were: Pres. Edward Bizzell, Vice Pres. Norwood Hinson, Sec. and Tres. Atlas Price Jr.

During the year we enjoyed class parties, and the Junior-Senior Banquet. We were very successful in producing our Junior play, "Pleased-ta-Meetcha".

Rachel Moye, one of our old classmates, and Josephine Smith, our newest member, were married and stopped school.

One year later we returned to school as Seniors. This being our last year in school, we realized that we must begin to think about the future. The class officers were: Pres. Edward Bizzell, Vice Pres. Norwood Hinson, Sec. Lucille Grant, and Tres. Gordon Price, Jr.

Soon we began organizing to publish the second edition of THE SESPRISCHOAN. We topped our goal of $500.00 for advertising sales. Each member took an active part and we successfully published 100 copies.

We are very thankful to Mrs. Scott, our sponsor for the many kind deeds she did for us during the year, which helped us progress in many ways.

The class of 1949 was very cooperative during its school years. Prepared to meet whatever comes in the future, we graduated from the twelfth grade on June 1.

---Gordon Price, Jr.

PROPHECY

These are things that I have found most interesting to me, so I am happy to pass them on to you and share with you this remarkable find of mine, that all important question "What is going to become of the class of 1949?"

As I gaze into my crystal ball I see far away on the busy highways of North Carolina, Roger Price riding down the road in his new Buick that the State of North Carolina just gave him for being such a good patrolman. He has caught several of North Carolina's worst gangsters. He has been awarded several high honors for bravery. We need more patrolmen like him.

As I slowly turn my crystal ball I see Norwood Mazingo. He has graduated from Harvard University and is now living in the Governor's Mansion at Seven Springs. Governor Mazingo says that in the next six weeks he intends to have all the roads in North Carolina that school buses travel over paved. Keep up the good work Governor Mazingo. We are all for you.

Just outside the city limits of Seven Springs I see McKinley Griffin's 950 acre farm. My but what a farm this is! I can see McKinley down in the far corner of the field with his wife supervising the replanting of his tobacco. This is a new type of tobacco recommended to yield 4,000 pounds per acre. He is also known as the president of the North Carolina Farming Association.

Now back to the city where I see Edward Bizzell fresh out of college running his big $198,000 Whole Sale House Market. I find him in his main office giving dictation to his pretty secretary Annie Doris Mazingo who just graduated from W.C.U.N.C.

As I ride up the road toward Mt. Olive. I pass William's Mill where I used to see Frank Kilpatrick paddling around in his little boat, in which he spent his leisure time fishing. Now as I look into the crystal ball I see Frank far out in the Atlantic Ocean. He is the captain of the world's largest ship "Soola Soola," that has a jet-propelled motor and will cross the ocean in four hours. Down in the sick room I find Vara Hines caring for the sick. She is indeed a good nurse.

Oh, My! What was that awful noise up in the clouds? I can't figure it out, so I think I will call the big Radar Station in Seven Springs and ask Gordon Price what it is. I am sure he knows for he is the noted Radar expert in the United States. He says that it was just Linwood Hill cruising around in his little Rocket X-100 that will go over 10,000 m.p.h. He's making plans now for a trip to the newly discovered planet, "Argento."

Back to earth I see Norwood Hinson in Seven Springs. He is in charge of the big Art Gallery that he has just built. Norwood has several of his paintings on display that are valued at over $10,000 each.

Across the woods on the edge of Savannah, I find Donald Price, his wife and five children tugging after him. Donald has done well for himself. He has accumulated a 5,000 acre dairy farm. His children run the dairy for him while he attends the big dairy meetings in Wisconsin.

I find Lucille Grant operating her beauty shop, "Jeanie's Salon," on Sunset Ave. She is the States most famous cosmetologist, and the most glamorous women are her clients.

I gaze into my crystal ball once more and see Patty Gray Creech as Social Science teacher in the new $7,000,000 school on Park Dale Avenue, opposite the Neuse River Falls Power Plant.

As I ride out in Pricetown I come to a big brick house with a new shiny Cadillac Convertible parked in the front. I wonder who lives here? It couldn't be anyone else but Atlas Price, Jr. He is one of Pricetown's best agricultural farmers and businessmen.

---Roger Price

CLASS WILL

The following may seem but trifling bequests, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things lavishly thrown away because we can no longer keep them, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them, and a continual reminder of the generosity of heart displayed in our free and full bestowal:

I, Norwood Hinson, do hereby will my art ability to Marie Williams.

I, Annie Doris Mazingo, do bequeath my ability to play a piano to Blanche Williams who needs it.

I, Linwood Hill, do hereby will my knowledge of mechanics to Ashton Dawson.

I, Patty Gray Creech, do bequeath my blond hair to Emma Jean Casey.

I, Gordon Price Jr., do bequeath my ability to get along with the female population of this institution to W.C. Sanderson.

I, Roger Price, do hereby will my ability to fly a plane and ride a motorcycle to Rex Price.

I, Atlas Price, do hereby will my ability to skate to Janet Ward.

I, Norwood Mazingo, do bequeath my basket ball ability to Jimmy Tompson.

I, McKinley Griffin, do bequeath my curly hair to any girl who forgot to roll her's up the night before.

I, Lucille Grant, do hereby will my appetite to Lorena Iamm and Inez Sullivan.

We, Roger Price, Norwood Mazingo, and McKinley Griffin leave our ability to get out of school to A.J. Herring and W.C. Sanderson.

I, Edward Bizzell, do bequeath my ability to make a speech without falling over every thing around me to A.J. Herring.

I, Franklin Kilpatrick, do hereby will my baseball ability to Jarvis Pate and Jimmy Thompson.

I, Donald Price, do bequeath my love for a Ford to Max Ivey.

I, Vara Hines, do hereby will my quiet and gentle ways to Jewel Dawson and Ellen Bartlett.

SPORTS

Interest in athletics runs high among students at Seven Springs. Baseball and basketball are the favorite sports, and on this page we are going to try to give you a brief review of these activities, along with several others of lesser importance.

Last year during baseball season, the Thunderbolts won five and lost five. Pitching hero for Seven Springs was "Lefty" Joe Outlaw, who won four and lost one. Kermit Wade and Mark Herring Jr. rounded out the mound staff. Herring lost a heartbreaker to Nahunta in the hardest fought game of the season. Leading batting averages for the season were sported by W. C. Sanderson and Mark Herring Jr. McKinley Griffin was the leading long ball hitter for the group, slugging away for doubles and triples on numerous occasions. Sporting one of the snappiest infields in the county, the Thunderbolts were a serious challenge to any team, and always fought with determination until the last ball was thrown and the last man was out. A good season is being predicted for this year. The following Seniors are expected to be right in the midst of things on the old baseball diamond; Kinley Griffin, Norwood Mazingo, Gordon Price Jr. and Frank Kilpatrick.

Although the Basketball teams did not experience a very successful season, they never lost their spirit and went into every game full of courage and the will to win. The girls' teams ran up a record of one win and nine losses in conference competition. The girls defeated Rosewood and Moss Hill in practice games, while their conference victory came at the expense of Brogden. Not a single member of the girls team will be graduated this year, and led by sharpshooting Irene Mazingo, Virginia Grant, Esther Whitfield, and Eunice Smith, along with those speedy guards, Edna Wise Griffin, Bobbie Whitley, and Jewel Dawson, they are expected to have a banner season next year.

The boys will suffer next season by losing the valuable services of Norwood "Hook" Mazingo, McKinley Griffin, and Gordon Price Jr., however; several younger players are coming along who show great promise, and of course the old reliable W. C. Sanderson will be found. This year the boys defeated one team, Brogden. They are looking for quite a string of "Sweet revenge" victories during the next season.

One of the less popular sports at S.S.H.S., but one which is gaining in favor all the time, especially among the girls, is the game of Softball. Some of the younger ones on the girls team are fast developing into promising players, and it is hoped that an active team can be organized to engage in interscholastic competition. Some of the boys have organized a boys Softball team, and are busily learning more about the game.

No review of sports at S.S.H.S. would be complete without mention of that famous rural pastime, pitching Horseshoes. Headed by Ashton Dawson, Griffin Price, Edwin Holmes and "Dynamite" Creech, a large group engages daily in this grand old activity.

Much credit for the good athletic program at Seven Springs High School must be extended to Principal James O. Waters and Mrs. Waters. Mr. Waters has encouraged and helped the Baseball teams, and together with Mrs. Waters has effected a complete revival of basketball in our school. During their several years at Seven Springs they have supported athletics wholeheartedly, and have thus gained much favor with both students and parents.
